CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

At this year's National Convention, we again Honored members of NSVA who passed away since last year's Convention. A total of 155 names were read.

It came to mind that this may be the last time some of these names would ever be spoken. I would like to ask all who read this to pause and say a prayer or just remember a fellow Seabee who is no longer with us.
Thank You.

Michael Boncheck National Chaplain
Navy Seabee Veterans of America

From the Editor: Due to the new officers that were elected at the National Convention it was suggested that the CAN DO carry at least one printing of the National Officers contact information per year for the convenience of the members that may not have ready access to the internet.

Please see the following page for this information.

Remember the CAN DO is printed and mailed to your address twice annually, the remaining two editions are available electronically on the NSVA Website at www.nsva.org

COMMANDER'S CORNER

Pictured on the left is Nancy Staples, President of the Navy Seabee Veterans of America Auxiliary standing next to the NSVA National Commander Dwight Hamborsky. Commander Hamborsky is in costume as a member of the Sons of the Revolution Honor Guard. Both he and Nancy were at the Tampa Florida airport welcoming home an Honor Flight returning from Washington DC.

To those veterans that have not availed themselves of this spectacular offer of flying to our nation's capital and touring many of the memorials built and dedicated to honor their service, I say get signed up to take your Honor Flight trip NOW.

A NEW BEGINNING

Pittsburgh was a fabulous convention! The trip to the Soldiers and Sailors Hall was very memorable and enlightening. We have a lot planned for Orlando next August so please go out of your way to attend.

Fortunately, we were able to fill all the vacancies in our needs line, which were the CAN DO and Life Membership, as well as, a new (Younger) Vice Commander from Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Eric Treece. I am confident he will bring a lot of enthusiasm to the program, as he has been very successful in turning a Swarm into an Island.

I am humbled by your keeping me on for another year as your National Commander and look forward to the new challenges ahead. Jack Tangen has done a wonderful job with the CAN DO and I am very grateful he will stay on as the Website Manager. Anthony Amesquita is a quick read, and I trust he will pick up the tradition of fielding a noteworthy publication. John Cubit is working with the new Life Membership Chairman, and we should see the new cards for our new Life Members in the mail very soon.

An unsung hero you may not know about is Nancy Staples, who has been my "Ghost Writer" for this article and is featured in the caption picture at the Honor Flight Welcome Home in St Pete on September 10, 2024. Her guiding eye has taken my mixed prose and made them readable. I will be doing it on my own for the next issue and will really miss her editing skills.

Island activities are increasing and new articles from the realm will be welcome as well as, perhaps articles that have been submitted but not yet published. Keep them coming as they let others know we are alive and well.

I will be going to Washington for both the Veterans Day events and the Seabee Birthday. Last year was really worth the trip.

In the Can Do Spirit,
Dwight K. Hamborsky
Your National Commander

President's Perspective.

Hello Auxiliary members and perspective members. If you attended the 2024 National Convention in Pittsburgh, I hope you had a great time. For those who weren't able to attend, we missed you.

The hospitality room was manned mostly by Auxiliary members, where we had some great snacks, water, and sodas. Beer was a bit harder to get but the Seabees found an ABC store and got a good variety. Tables in the room displayed the auction items and items for sale by vendors. Thanks to all who donated the auction items.

The meeting on Friday was very productive. A new member joined us and learned a lot about the auxiliary business. All resolutions passed thanks to those who sent in their votes and those present at the meeting. A box lunch was given to all Auxiliary members in attendance after the meeting.

This year the Member at Large who traveled the furthest was Patricia Montuori of Boca Raton, FL. The Island Auxiliary that had the greatest percentage increase in membership was Island X-11 Tampa, FL. The Island Auxiliary that had the most members in attendance was Island X-23 Crystal River, FL.

The Memorial Service practices resulted in a VERY beautiful remembrance service. Thanks to all who volunteered to read the 155+ names of deceased NSVA and Auxiliary members, place flowers, and perform other parts of the service.

The trip to the Veteran's Hall and Museum was attended and enjoyed by many.

The Banquet on Saturday night included a great guest speaker, Pittsburg X-3 Seabee, Judge Mike McCarthy. The POW/MIA Table and the Military Children's Table presentations were very moving. After the youngest and oldest Seabees were found and presented with flags, they cut the cake. Then we got to find the winners of the various drawings. Finally, we got to eat cake!

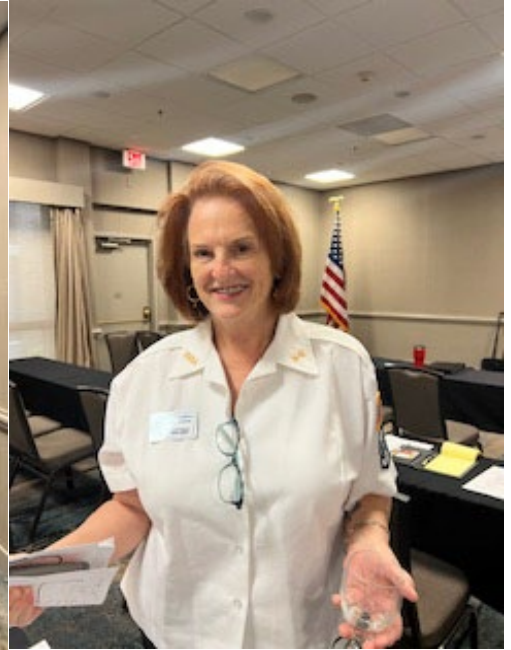

Next year we will meet in Orlando, FL and hope to see many of you there. Further information will be coming.

If you are not yet a member, check WWW.NSVA.ORG under the SVA Auxiliary tab for an application. If you do not live near an auxiliary, you can become a Member at Large (MAL) with voting privileges at the next National Convention, where it will be time for Auxiliary Officer elections. Think about becoming an officer.

Nancy Staples, National NSVAA President

NSVA 2024 Convention Review

The NSVA 2024 Convention was held in Green Tree, PA (Pittsburgh) from August 13 thru August 17th at the Double Tree by Hilton. The venue and staff were very accommodating and pleasant, the hotel accommodations were clean and well appointed. The hospitality room was overflowing with snacks beverages and auction items, enough so we had to move to a different room to play bingo and roulette. Following are pictures submitted by members at various events and gatherings.

Reader practice for the Memorial Service held on Saturday morning. It is a very moving and solemn ceremony. As mentioned in the Chaplains Corner 155 names were read.

Group picture of most of the attendees at the 2024 Convention business meeting at the end of the day. They are a good looking bunch. Many participated in the meeting and nobody was bloodied. The Convention meeting notes can be found on the NSVA Website at www.nsva.org

The SVAA was in-charge of the hospitality room, the refreshments, and snacks. They also organized the auction items, table games and maintained the room in a neat and orderly fashion. A Thank You to the Auxiliary and the other NSVA members and guests that contributed both their auction items and energy in making this convention a success.

Games of chance (roulette and bingo) were played and 50/50 tickets were available for monetary donation. As luck would have it one Seabee rose to the occasion, winning three games of the four High Stakes bingo and the roulette game during the game night on Friday evening, thank you Patrick Leiher. But he was not done yet. During the Banquet on Saturday evening a single game of chance again on the roulette wheel was played, Winner Take ALL!! Thank You Again Pat Leiher, talk about LUCKY!!!

On to the Banquet

Our keynote speaker, The Honorable Michael E. McCarthy, and his wife Janice. Judge McCarthy is currently assigned to the Court of Common Pleas Fifth Judicial District Orphan's Division. Before ascending to the bench, Judge McCarthy served as a County Detective, an assistant District Attorney in the White Collar Crime Unit and served as an administrative chairman of the Court of Common Pleas Board of Reviews. Judge McCarthy had a general law practice and held several municipal solicitorships.

Judge McCarthy received both his undergraduate degree and Juris Doctorate from Duquesne University. Judge McCarty is a Vietnam Veteran serving as a BU3 with CBMU 302, NAVCAT in the U.S. Navy Seabees.

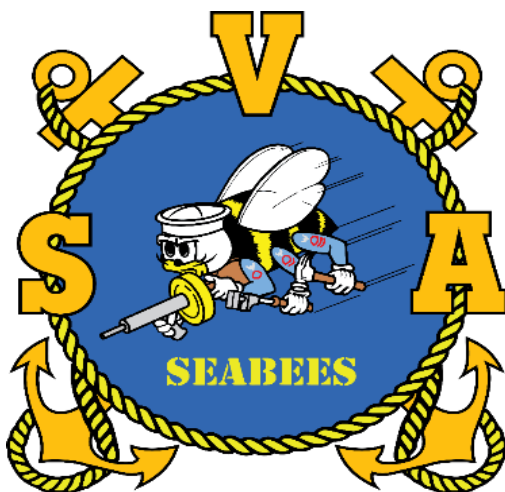

"Around the horn" at the banquet. Everyone went away as full as they wanted to be (if they did not, it was their fault). The food, company and speakers was/were great. I believe everyone had a good time, especially Pat Leihar! Seriously though, Pat is a great guy and a great brother Seabee.

To the right, Chevo Soliz and Jim Furey PNC cut the banquet cake as the Youngest and Oldest Seabees in attendance at the banquet.

ISLAND HOPPING

On the morning of October 5th, 2024, the Navy Seabee Veterans of America, Island X-4, Longmont, CO and three friends, completed another successful day of Adopt a Highway service to the residents of Weld County and the State of Colorado motorists. The crew consisted of three Retired Seabees (Mark Abromski, Brian Condray and Gerald Kissinger) along with Rodney Rice and Sky Solomon and Ethan (Brian's guest).

The crew performed over 26 hours of volunteer cleanup, picking up 40 bags of debris, in addition to lumber, sheet metal, automobile tires and wheels, advertising signs, car parts and electronics. This cleanup of the State Highway is critical and clears the right-of-way for mowing operations to be performed by the Colorado Department of Transportation. Thank you, to all, for your CAN-DO ATTITUDE and COMMITMENT to the community!

BRAVO ZULU, Volunteers!

The city of Ormond Beach Florida holds a patriotic concert each year with music provided by the Daytona Beach Concert band. The event this year was sponsored by the American Legion Post 267, American Legion Post 267 Auxiliary, and the Vietnam Veterans of America. The local veteran organizations are requested to select a Patriot of the Year to be honored. At half time veterans are presented with a certificate of appreciation.

Shown below is Steve Ibelli, member and Master at Arms for NSVA Island X-19 Daytona Beach, Florida proudly wearing his Seabee shirt while receiving his award for recognition as a 2024 Volusia County Patriot of the Year at the recent Memorial Day concert. The picture with Steve with Marvin Miller, also an award recipient, whose four brothers all served in the Marine Corps.

Here we are, the outgoing and incoming Editors of the CAN DO Magazine. That's me Jack on the left, Anthony on the right, as many of you already know.

It has been my pleasure to have helped develop and nudged the CAN DO Publication forward and to have hopefully improved the content, making it a worthwhile publication for our membership and our supporters. I'm grateful and owe a lot of individuals who have helped me along the way, in particular my proof reader Nancy Staples.

If there's anything I'll take away from this experience it's knowing that the Seabees are perhaps the most humble and introverted military group in the US military. The only bragging a Seabee does is to another Seabee. We have to change that, and I think Anthony CAN DO that. Let's help Anthony out by sending him your stories and pictures about your Island and Department activities, helping Veterans, neighbors and communities. We must continue to build upon and grow the Seabee legacy, it is up to US.

See pages 3-4 for Anthony's contact information.

On Tuesday, Fred Johnson presented "The Fighting Seabees," a history on some of the unsung heroes of WWII at the Wright Museum of WWII in Wolfeboro, NH.

We were also pleased to have a number of former and current Navy Seabees in the capacity audience for Johnson's presentation (picture below). Thanks to everyone who came out for this special night!

A Note to ALL District, Department, Island Commanders, and Secretaries, Please remember that it is your responsibility to verify the "existence" of your members. We recently purged the membership rolls of over +90 Seabees thanks to the diligent work of Ann Pollock, NSVAA member Island 23. We appreciated her effort and willingness to help address this issue, but it is not her job, IT'S YOUR JOB!!! Its your job to verify the rosters of your Islands. You might consider spreading the work out amongst your members as the American Legion does in their Buddy Check Program. Divy up the contact list and have each member contact 2 or 3 members you have not heard from in a while. It's that simple.

Vietnam Perspectives

The book shown above was written by SW-2 Gerald Fenske as a memoir of his time and experiences in Danang Vietnam. It is a good read, full of memories and some Sea Stories. If you have been in the Navy (not even particularly a Seabee), you know how it goes: Fairytales start with Once upon a Time; Sea Stories start with You are not going to believe this S__ T!

CELEBRATING A CENTURY
The Remarkable Journey of WWII Pacific Seabee Antonio "Tony" Fonseca
By Craig Fonseca, Grandson of Tony Fonseca

As the sun rose on October 19, 2024, family and friends gathered to celebrate a momentous occasion: the 100th birthday of Antonio "Tony" Fonseca, a true American hero. With a lifetime of stories etched in his heart, Tony reminisced about his extraordinary journey as a Navy Seabee during World War II, a journey that spanned continents and defined his character.

From City Streets to War-Torn Shores

Tony's adventure began on August 31, 1943, when he enlisted in the Navy Seabees a unique branch of the military known for both building and battling. Reporting to 383 Madison Avenue in New York City, he was just a young man ready to serve his country. "I was proud to wear that uniform," Tony recalled, his eyes sparkling with nostalgia. "Little did I know the challenges and friendships that awaited me." After boot camp at Camp Peary in Virginia and further training at Camp Endicott in Rhode Island, Tony embarked on a convoy aboard the SS Cape Bon. His mission? Building and maintaining the critical infrastructure needed to support Allied operations across the Pacific.

Facing Danger Head-On

Tony's journey took him through the Panama Canal and across the Pacific, arriving in Milne Bay, New Guinea, in February 1944. It was here that the realities of war hit home. "We faced air raids and danger daily," Tony recalled somberly. "But we were there to build roads and bases, to support our troops. We had a mission. Among his vivid memories is a close call during a Japanese air raid, where shrapnel narrowly missed him. "It was terrifying, but those moments brought us closer together," he reflected. "We became a family."

From Builders to Celebrators

While the war was filled with hardship, there were also moments of joy and adventure. Tony chuckled as he recalled sneaking off for liberty in Australia. "I just had to see the sights! It was a once-in-a-lifetime chance." His laughter filled the room, a testament to the resilience and spirit that characterized his service. As the war came to an end on August 14, 1945, the joy was palpable. "We heard the sirens and ran to celebrate," Tony said with a grin. "The bar closed ten minutes later, but what a night it was!"

A Legacy of Strength and Hope

Today, Tony stands as a beacon of strength and hope. His journey through the Pacific, marked by danger and bravery, shaped not only his life but the lives of countless others. Reflecting on his service, he humbly remarked, "I consider myself lucky. I came home and built a family." As friends and family raised their glasses in a heartfelt toast during his birthday celebration, they honored not just Tony's incredible life but the spirit of resilience and camaraderie that defines the Seabees.

"Here's to you, Tony!" they cheer, celebrating a legacy that continues to inspire.

Tony Fonseca's story is one of courage, camaraderie, and unwavering spirit—a reminder that heroes come in many forms, and their legacies endure through generations. As he looks ahead to the next chapter, surrounded by loved ones, he embodies the very essence of living life to the fullest. Happy 100th Birthday, Tony!
